

EBIXCASH WORLD MONEY INDIA LIMITED

(ERSTWHILE WEIZMANN FOREX LIMITED)

Policy name	Policy on Determining “Materiality” of Events or Information for Disclosure
Approval Authority	Board of Directors

1.1 Introduction

EbixCash World Money India Limited (Erstwhile Weizmann Forex Limited) (the Company) is committed to being opened and transparent with its shareholders and believes in disseminating information in a fair and timely manner. The SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirement) Regulations, 2015 {Listing Regulations} has become effective from December 1, 2015. The regulations call for formulating a policy for determining materiality of events or information that warrants disclosure to its shareholder.

1.2 Objective of this Policy

The purpose of this Policy is to:

- (a) record and reinforce the Company’s commitment to the disclosure obligations stipulated by the Listing Regulations;
- (b) make timely, transparent and balanced disclosures;
- (c) outline the Company’s corporate governance standards aimed at ensuring timely and accurate information is provided equally to all shareholders and market participants regarding the Company;
- (d) ensure that to the best of the knowledge of the management, the corporate documents and public statements are accurate and do not contain any misrepresentation.

1.3 Review of this Policy

The Board will evaluate this Policy from time to time to determine whether it remains effective in ensuring accurate and timely disclosure in accordance with the Company’s disclosure obligations. If considered necessary, this document will be updated, and an updated copy will be distributed to Directors and senior employees to reflect any changes to the Company’s business operations, the Listing Regulations.

2. Disclosure

2.1 Disclosure Obligation

Under Listing Regulations the Company is required to notify Stock Exchange as well as upload the information on their website immediately it becomes aware of any information concerning the Company that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company’s securities.

The Company must not release such information to any other person until it has given the information to Stock Exchanges.

If any material information disclosed to the market becomes incorrect, the Company must release an announcement correcting or updating the information.

2.2 Materiality Assessment

Materiality will have to be determined on a case to case basis depending on the facts and the circumstances in respect of an event or information.

An event or an information to be regarded as material if there is a likelihood that a reasonable investor make consider such event or information to be important in making his / her decision to buy or sell or hold a security or such event or information may have significant effect on the market price of the security of the company. The material aspect of information or an event could be positive or negative and accordingly would have its effect.

Guidance to be had to SEBI circular of 09.09.2015 as amended from time to time in the matter of type of information in respect of an event that has to be reported.

To determine whether information is material and therefore should be reported for disclosure, the Board has adopted a Materiality Guidelines.

Whether a matter is material needs to be considered from both a quantitative viewpoint (such as a claim for more than a specified amount) and a qualitative viewpoint (such as if it could adversely affect the reputation of the Company).

Matters which a reporting officer considers to be material having regard to the Materiality Guidelines should be immediately reported to the Company Secretary and MD/CEO. If there is any doubt as to whether a matter is material then the reporting officer should nevertheless immediately notify it to the Company Secretary, or in his absence, the MD/CEO, for further consideration. The Company Secretary shall immediately take up the matter with MD / CEO / Vice Chairman / Chairman for confirming the materiality of the event or information and reporting to the Board and disclosure thereof.

The Company will ensure that all price sensitive information is released to the market on a timely basis, notwithstanding whether such information has a positive or negative sentiment. An illustrative list of information which can have material impact on the market price of the securities of the company segregating into matters which need disclosure without the need for ascertaining "materiality" – Part A of the Annexure and matters where in disclosure is as per "materiality criteria" – Part B of the Annexure as per this policy is attached as Annexure.

Though whether an event or information is material or not is required to be assessed on case to case basis, a broad criteria for reporting an event or information is

- i) Consideration involved in respect of matters in the nature of assets or liabilities exceeding 20% of net worth of the company as per the last audited accounts.

- ii) Consideration involved in respect of matters in the nature of revenue or expenses exceeding 1% of total revenue of the company as per the last audited accounts.

2.3 Disclosure Responsibilities

The Company has determined that any two of Chairman, Vice Chairman and MD/CEO, will be jointly responsible for the implementation and operation of this Policy and the Company Secretary shall co-ordinate on the matter. The MD/CEO and the Company Secretary shall report to the Board on significant disclosure issues.

The Chairman / Vice Chairman and MD/CEOs, disclosure responsibilities and implemented through the Company Secretary under this policy include:

- a) managing the Company's compliance with its disclosure obligations
- b) determining the appropriate time at which the disclosures are to be made to the stock exchanges
